AUTHORS

Amarnath B

Etiologic and clinical implications of colorectal cancer. 48(4):205

Anand S

Corrosive injuries of the digestive tract. 48(6):341

Bayfield MS

Intraoperative screening for atheromatous disease using epi-aortic ultrasound to reduce stroke. 48(1):21

Bronsther O

Symposium: Options in the management of patients with portal hypertensive bleeding. 48(5):303

Brown L

Clinical concepts: Rapid wound closure with consistently buried knots: A new technique. 48(5):298

Buckley MJ

Symposium: Pharmacologic control of bleeding in patients undergoing open heart surgery. 48(3):175

Cameron JL

Symposium: Adenocarcinoma of the head, neck, and uncinate process of the pancreas. 48(6):355

Cappuccino HH

Foramen of Morgagni hernia: Diagnosis with magnetic resonance imaging. 48(2):81

Carr SC

Blunt carotid injuries. 48(5):280

Carty SE

Sporadic primary hyperparathyroidism: Must we always explore both sides? 48(1):38

Chu BC

Traumatic hemipelvectomy: A multidisciplinary approach to treatment. 48(2):88

D'Ambra MN

Symposium: Pharmacologic control of bleeding in patients undergoing open heart surgery. 48(3):175

Denning DA

An institutional review of the management of splenic trauma. 48(6):330

Ertl W

Intestinal perforation from blunt abdominal trauma. 48(6):351

Erzurum VZ

Trends in splenic salvage in a community teaching hospital. 48(1):31

Espada R

Sarcoma presenting as thoracoabdominal aortic aneurysm: Case reports and literature review. 48(3):135

Familiant B

Intestinal perforation from blunt abdominal trauma. 48(6):351

Farid A

Traumatic hemipelvectomy: A multidisciplinary approach to treatment. 48(2):88

Ferraris VA

Symposium: Identification and treatment of the patient at high risk for bleeding. 48(2):109

Gordon RD

Symposium: Options in the management of patients with portal hypertensive bleeding. 48(5):303
